Maysville Will Stay Right on the World's Base Ball Map
—Meeting Last Night to Finance Home Team

Men Now Behind Things Who Will Put Team on Business Basis

Last night's gathering of Maysville base ball enthusiasts was so intensely earnest that there is now no doubt of the Maysville team remaining in the Ohio State League.

Mr. Thomas L. Ewan was called to preside over the meeting and in a few brief, but timely remarks he called for action and stated the object of the meeting.

The following gentlemen were named for the temporary organization:
President—Thomas A. Keith.
Vice President—Henry J. Shea.
Secretary—Roy Cochran.
Treasurer—Robert Owens.

This organization should be permanent. We recognize the fact that baseball is one of the greatest advisers a town has. Let's get together and get Maysville in shape.

The proposition is to form a company with $2,000 stock to start the ball rolling, and the unanimity expressed by those present proves the success of the 1914 season.

Chairman Thomas L. Ewan appointed the following committee to solicit stock at $25 per share. They want 80 shares; already secured 16. The committee is:
Thomas A. Keith.
W. W. McIlvaine.
R. B. Owens.
Roy Cochran.
James F. Walton.
L. Wright Browning.
C. L. Wood.

On January 1 there were 188,850 idle railroad cars—171,792 more than a year ago. The present number of idle cars is almost unprecedented.

In the last year more than one hundred companies have been formed to engage in the breeding of fur bearing animals in the maritime provinces of Canada.

At a recent meeting of the Oregon Wool Growers' Association, resolutions were adopted denouncing the new tariff and the Oregon delegation in Congress for its support of the bill.

The Department of Agriculture estimates that this year's corn crop will be much the most "valuable" in our history. Although it is estimated to be nearly 662,000,000 bushels less than the high record crop of 1912, at present prices it will bring the farmers nearly $221,000,000 more money.

"Tackle the work just in front of you. Strive in an honest way to do the best you can, and if having done your best, there seems to appear the hand of some Overruling Power which hammers you, take it like a good piece of steel and come off the anvil with a better temper and a keener edge."

—C. W. Post.

Leslie's Weekly points out that the Democratic victories in Massachusetts, New Jersey and Maryland were triumphs over a divided Republican Party. But for this division, the returns show that both Massachusetts and New Jersey would have been lost by the Democrats. The Progressive vote showed a great falling off everywhere except in Massachusetts. It was still sufficiently large to be a decisive factor. History tells us that a divided party cannot hope to win and it also tells us that a divided party ultimately becomes a united party and renews its victories. How long the Democratic Party can maintain its solidarity is a question. As long as it does, it will achieve its victories in the face of a divided opposition. President Wilson will find that his administration will be put to the real test of its popularity at the polls next November.

WHAT BUNKO SCHEMER IS THIS?

"Unless the American farmers receive low interest loans aggregating $1,000,000,000 the American people in a short time will be facing a food famine." This was the statement of S. C. Hobbs, of the Farmers' National Union, during his appearance before the House Rural Credits Committee Wednesday. Hobbs said there was 800,000,000 bushels shortage of corn last year.—News item.

THE PALACE OF GOVERNMENT

OWNERSHIP.

If Senator Kenyon's plan for government ownership of the railroads of the country were carried out, the Ottumwa (Iowa) Courier declares that men of ambition in the great railroad field might as well bid good-by to opportunity. "If a man started as a brakeman he would always be a brakeman, if he started in as a switchman he would continue to be a switchman and son on. Merit would go unrewarded as it does right now in the federal service. Men with the 'pulls,' not those with the push, would land the jobs and competency would not be the guiding consideration. Under the present plan men start in at the bottom and advance in accordance with their increased proficiency. The limit is the highest position. Opportunity is theirs. But opportunity will be missing when politicians get control."

OUR GRAMMAR.

"I seen her when she done it," said the girlie on the train, "I seen her when she done and she done it just as plain. She never had no bringing up; she acts just like a fool; I haven't saw such manners since I was a kid at school. Just between you and I, my dear, her education's bad; She doesn't speak grammatical. Her English makes me sad."

"I've often saw the lady," said her escort on the train, "And all them fool mistakes she makes would give a guy a pain."

It's just as easy to talk right, like fellows in a book, And that's why I remember all the lessons I have took. You'd think she'd be more careful of grammatical mistakes. Why don't she talk like I and you, and not make all them breaks?"

—By William F. Kirk.

BRIGHT GEMS FROM THE JOLLY ELK.

The Philistine strikes 13 when it says: The Juter is a fool who does not know that to love is the greatest of luxuries.

And now the Indians at Red Lake, Minn., are complaining of the high cost of living—a sure sign of a better civilization.

Michigan now holds the palm for "the largest death roll on record among deer hunters." Well, that's something.

And sure it is, that when the orator speaks the man who rises to reply had better have something to say, or woe is he. Selah!

John K. Tener would rather be a baseball president than United States Senator. That's where John shows jolly good sense.

Even at that the man who rocks the boat and the guy who didn't know it was loaded will give the fool killer a rest till next summer.

If you can't solve the high cost of living problem, just tell your father-in-law that you have concluded to come and board with him.

Elbert Hubbard says that politicians are men who volunteer the task of governing us, for a consideration, and Elbert is not half wrong at that.

The German Kaiser quarrelled with the Crown Prince, and as a punishment he will be sent on a trip around the world. Beastly cruel, doncherkno.

It is to be hoped that at the Denver session of the Grand Lodge the question as to who really founded the Order will be settled definitely and for all time.

THE DAILY NOVELLETTE.

In The Nick of Time.
In the age of knights and romance
The hero would have kept
The handkerchief as a token
Over which he would have wept.

I.

"Darn it!" swore Frumpty Upjohn thickly (for he had a terrible cold in his head), "This is just my luck. A mile from home before I discover I came away without a handkerchief! Darn it, I say, darn it!" (He really had a fearful cold and needed one badly.)

II.

Ethelberta Scrathers stood at the junction of Main street and wiped a tear out of both eyes.
"Can it be that I am getting old?" she thought. "I have been trying to flirt for five blocks and not a man can I get to even look at me twice! It is enough to make a modest girl forget herself! I know! I'll drop my handkerchief. I've read in books that that always fetches them!"

And, just as Frumpty Upjohn was three yards behind her (in spite of his cold he was a handsome dog) she dropped her tiny handkerchief.

III.

Upjohn's heart beat quicker as he stooped and snatched it up.
"A gift from the gods!" he sniffled. "It's small, and it's hers, but it's better than nothing and I need it more than she does."

And, turning swiftly, he sped away with it on the wings of the wind.—Louisville Times.

"Naw," replied the Grouch. "I talk to myself when I am shaving."

Another Popular Song.
THE PASSING OF THE BEER.
(Grand Lodge (Mich.) Independent.)
She sat within a window and a tear stood in her eye,
The bells were tolling sadly as she saw a beer go by.
Whose form lies there she wondered,
and whyfore do I cry,
Why does my heart beat so because that beer is passing by.
Her lover dera had went away and left her chair to sigh,
And all the time that solemn beer was going farther by.

The reformer never accomplishes much, probably for the reason that if he did his job would be abolished.

There are people who can talk on any subject and don't, and there are other people who can't but who do.

When a politician changes parties that means the one with which he previously was affiliated has kicked him out.

The difference between a smart man and a fool is that the smart man makes the same mistake but once. The fool makes it half a dozen times in succession.

As we understand the rules of society, a man is not bound to a young woman unless he has kissed her. Merely holding her hand does not necessarily involve him.

Weil & Co., the Lexington cattle dealers, completed one of the biggest purchases of the season when the fat herd of J. W. Parrish, president of the Commercial Bank at Midway, Woodford County. There are 119 head of steers in the herd, averaging 1,320 pounds, and were in prime condition. They were sold at $105.60 per head, or an average of $105.60 per head. Weil & Co. shipped the entire bunch to Philadelphia, where they will be loaded for export to Great Britain. The cattle netted their owner over $12,500.

A FAIR WARNING

One That Should Be Heeded By Maysville Residents.

Frequently the first sign of kidney trouble is a slight ache or pain in the loins. Neglect of this warning makes the way easy for more serious troubles—dropsy, gravel, Bright's disease. 'Tis well to pay attention to the first sign. Weak kidneys generally grow weaker and delay is often dangerous. Residents of this locality place reliance in Doan's Kidney Pills. This tested, remedy has been used in kidney trouble over 50 years—is recommended all over the civilized world. Read the following:
A. Sorries, locksmith, Aberdeen, Ohio, says: "The action of my kidneys was irregular and the kidney secretions contained sediment. I had backache and when stooping, it was hard for me to straighten. Colds always settled on my kidneys. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they stopped the trouble and my kidneys became strong."
For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

THINGS WORTH KNOWING.

The war debt of the nations of the earth exceeds $40,000,000,000. It never can or will be paid.

The United States is now spending in time of peace more than $800,000 a day on the army and navy. We spend more than $10,000 a day on smokeless powder alone.

A battleship costs more than 10,000 homes.

RUN-DOWN PEOPLE

Let Vinol Make You Strong.

We are confident that Vinol is the best body builder and strength creator we have ever sold. Try a bottle on your guarantee to refund your money if it fails to help you. J. C. Peor, Drugist, Maysville, Ky.

WANTED TO SEE IT ALL.

At a moving picture theater one evening there was thrown on the screen a view of a group of young ladies preparing to disrobe and go in bathing in a sheltered lake in the background. Just as they started to undress a long freight train came along the track between the camera and the bathers. By the time it had passed the young ladies were in their bathing suits and in the lake. At the close of the evening's performance at the theater a man hurried out to the box office and throwing down a bill demanded a seat for every night during the balance of the week. "I will be glad to sell them to you," explained the man in the ticket window, "but we show the same pictures every night this week." "I know you do," replied the prospective purchaser. "But I'm an old railroad man and I know that freight is not going to be on time every night."

or selling the schoolhouse in any way? Not a day or an hour passes without affording an opportunity for repressing actions that will give pain to others. The attendance at school of deformed child, or one so different from the others as to attract attention may be made the occasion for deep and lasting moral impressions, and the school life of the unfortunate may be made so pleasant by the affectionate attitude of his schoolmates as to compensate, to a large extent, for the privations which his unfortunate condition entails. A case of destitution in the neighborhood may occasion the voluntary offer of service which requires sacrifice of pleasure, time, and comfort; and when this is accomplished a great step is gained in the triumph of duty over selfishness.

Teachers who are having difficulty in teaching correct pronunciation and clear, clean-cut enunciation may find some of the exercises that were formerly used of value. Here is one that will do to start with: "Thaddeus Thiekhong the thoughtless thistle-sifter, thrice thrust three thousand thistles through the thick of his thumb." After this has been thoroughly mastered, the organs of speech may be still further limbered up by use of this one: "Amidst the mists and coldest frosts, he thrust his fists against the post and still insists he sees the ghost."

HELL GATE BRIDGE.

Hell Gate Bridge, which is now being constructed across East River New York, as a link to connect New England with the West and South, will contain the longest steel arch span ever built. The bridge is a part of the New York Connecting Railroad, built by the New Haven and the Pennsylvania systems to carry traffic from north of Harlem River to Long Island and to relieve the Grand Central Station. The road will have four tracks, will be ten miles long and will cost $30,000,000. About 15,800 feet of it will be carried on bridges and viaducts at from 20 to 135 feet above the ground.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

ARGENTINE CORN

Swamping New York and Chicago Markets—Unprecedented Condition.

The Cincinnati Commercial Tribune of January 9, had the following special from New York:

Nearly 200,000 bushels of Argentine corn were being unloaded in this port today and millions more from South American republics are under contract.

The importation is the direct result of the removal of the duty on the staple under the recent tariff act. More than 1,000,000 bushels have been received in the United States since the tariff went into effect, the first from Argentine ever brought here, and already the competition with American corn has forced a decline in cash values.

Thirteen ships are either en route here or loading with corn from the Argentine, and one American manufacturing concern which uses corn in the manufacture of sirups and kindred products has 5,000,000 bushels from the country under contract for delivery.

When the Argentine corn crop is harvested the importations will increase, according to trade authorities. The corn already here found the railroads unprepared to handle it and the port without adequate docking facilities.

The fact that hitherto practically no corn has ever moved West also has confronted the railroads with a new rate problem.

FOREST NOTES.

There are 36,500,000 young trees in the government's forest nurseries.

Two tons of cascara bark have just been sold from the Siuslaw national forest, Oregon, at one cent a pound.

The northernmost national forest is the Chugach in Alaska; the southernmost is the Luquillo in Porto Rico.

For shingles alone, 750 million feet of timber is cut in that part of the State of Washington which lies west of the Cascades.

California led last year in timber sold from national forests, though Montana had the largest number of sale transactions.

The American forestry association has just elected Henry S. Drinker, president of Lehigh University, and P. S. Ridsdale, as its president and secretary respectively.

The biological survey and the forest service have been co-operating in the extermination of ground squirrels on national forests in California. The annual loss of range feed and grain crops from ground squirrels is enormous.

THE PRICE SHE PAYS

There is hardly an American woman nowadays who can keep pace with the demands made upon her time and energy without paying the penalty of ill-health. It may be that dreadful backache, dragging pains, head aches, nervousness or the tortures of a displacement. It is the price she pays. To women in this condition Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound comes as a boon and a blessing. A simple remedy made from roots and herbs which brings glorious health to suffering women.

GOOD SALESMEN MUST PAY THE PRICE.

Almost every man that I have talked to when applying to me for a position shows a great anxiety to succeed, or, perhaps, I might say, a great desire; but when I put a few questions to him I find him not always willing to pay the price—by that I mean the price of success, which is intelligence, hard work, good habits, neatness in appearance and absolute cleanliness in life. It seems strange that a man should have a desire to achieve a certain thing and not take the best road to make him successful. I believe every salesman is estimated by the trade for precisely what he is; if he is guilty of sharp practices—if he is unreliable or untruthful—if he fails to keep his time—customers without sending notice to his customers promptly to explain the reason why and explain when they may expect him, or if he omits any of the thousand and one duties that pertain to the daily life of a salesman, his customers know it—are fully aware of it—and they size him up and judge him accordingly.—E. C. Simmons, of St. Louis, in Boot and Shoe Recorder.

EDISON ONCE DISCHARGED BY A RAILWAY CONDUCTOR

In the January Woman's Home Companion a contributor names ten great men of our time and gives many interesting facts about them. Among these, of course, is Thomas A. Edison who is briefly described as follows:

"Thomas Edison is one of the greatest inventive mechanical geniuses who ever lived. His life story is outwardly uneventful. He was born in Ohio in 1847, and at twelve became a train boy; he took advantage of an empty express room in a car and printed a little newspaper called 'The Grand Trunk Herald,' and also carried on chemical and electrical experiments there. These came to an end when he set fire to the car accidentally, and was dismissed by the angry conductor."

"He learned telegraphy and practiced it in several cities, coming after a time to New York. There he invented a printing telegraph machine, known as 'the ticker,' to record stock quotations. This brought him in forty thousand dollars and enabled him to set up his famous laboratory in New Jersey."

"His first really great invention was the quadruplex telegraph, which makes it possible to send four messages over one wire at the same time. Next came the carbon transmitter. Edison's third great work was the discovery of the carbon filament for the incandescent light, and his next the phonograph, which has developed into extended and various uses. His work on the cinematograph has brought moving pictures into a conspicuous place not only for amusement but for education."

JUDGE G. M. THOMAS

Late Honored Citizen of Lewis County Given Deserved Praise—Brief Sketch of a Man Who Had Both Backbone and Piety.

(Vanceburg Sun.)

Judge George M. Thomas, the subject of this sketch, was born November 23, 1828, on Salt Lick Creek, near Valley, Lewis County, Ky. He was educated in the common schools in his native county and at a select school at Flemingsburg.

He was accustomed to hard work on the farm and when quite young made a trip to New Orleans, La., on a flat boat getting 50c a day for the hard labor incident to such employment. He taught school two terms at Clarksville and in 1851 was admitted to the bar. He had in 1850 been elected County School Commissioner and served nine years. In 1854, elected County Attorney and served four years. Elected member of the Kentucky Legislature in 1859 and re-elected in 1861.

In 1862 elected Commonwealth Attorney in the 10th Judicial district and served six years. Elected County Judge in 1868 to fill the vacancy and served two years. In 1871, was nominated for lieutenant governor by the Republican State convention and made a joint canvass of the State with the late distinguished John G. Carlisle. In February 1872, elected member of the Kentucky Legislature to fill a vacancy and re-elected in 1873. Elected Circuit Judge in 1874 and presided until 1880. Defeated in 1880 for Circuit Judge in August by the late Judge A. E. Cole and also defeated in November of the same year for Congress by Judge E. C. Whiter, although he received 900 more votes in the 9th district than did Gen. Garfield for President. Was appointed U. S. District Attorney for Kentucky in 1881, by President Garfield and served four years. In 1886 elected member of Congress in the 9th district of Kentucky, by a majority of 280 over Judge Garrett S. Wall. In May 1897 was appointed Solicitor of Internal Revenue by President McKinley and served four years in Washington D. C. at the end of which 1901 he returned to Vanceburg and after 50 years of professional and official work he retired from active labors. Such is the remarkable and perhaps unparalleled record of Lewis County's most distinguished citizen. Judge Thomas was eminently successful as a lawyer and stood high in the ranks of his profession; as a judge he was fair and impartial and delivered the judicial ermine without spot or blemish to his successor. Although a man of delicate health he was industrious and untiring and by his strong will-power overcame many obstacles that no ordinary man could have overcome. He was a doer not a dreamer. He was a good practitioner and also a good judge, a combination that is rare.

He was also a good financier, another faculty not usually had by lawyers of rank. He also possessed both talent and tact, another rare combination, always a close student and extensive reader of history, both sacred and profane and a reader of those who are pre-eminent as writers on almost every popular subject of the time. He was always an interesting conversationalist whose company was sought by all friends who admire intellectual acumen. He retained his mental vigor and activity until the very last notwithstanding his advanced age and never lost interest in the current events of the day politically or otherwise. His fine sense of humor always was manifest even unto the last and whatever crowd he was in he was the McGregor and occupied a seat at the head of the table. He was made a member of the Masonic Lodge at Concord, Ky., in 1859. At the age of 14 he united with the Christian Church and was always a liberal contributor not only to that church but others. He was public spirited and did much toward building and developing the city and county.

On July 8th, 1895, he was united in marriage to Miss Catharine William, of this county, who died in 1912. To this union were born three children, one of whom died in infancy. The second child, Bruce, died in January, 1882, at the age of 31, and was a promising attorney and left a son George M. Thomas, Jr., well and favorably known here. The third child is Mrs. Araminta Pugh, the beloved wife of Judge S. J. Pugh, of our own city, whose sincere devotion to her parents was always a source of great pleasure to them. He left five grandchildren and quite a number of great grandchildren.

Judge Thomas was a man of broad and generous thoughts and whose private and public life will bear the search-light of closest investigation and one whose career may well serve as an example and incentive to the younger generation. His splendid and almost unequalled record in the service of his country, his district, his State and the nation is highly appreciated by all familiar with it. He accumulated a large estate which he willed to his daughter and grandchildren.

His unwavering faith in the Divine Being is a source of great comfort and consolation to his relatives and friends in this hour of deep bereavement. W.

SMALLPOX EPIDEMIC IN BOURBON COUNTY.

Paris, Ky.—Wholesale vaccinations are the result of a sweeping order of the county and city boards of health owing to the prevalence of smallpox in Bourbon County. Thirty cases are reported in various sections of the county and an epidemic seems imminent.

"At the rate of increase in the number of cases during the last ten days," said County Attorney Batterson, "unless stringent means are employed in a month, half the people in the county will be infected. I have urged the calling together of the city and county health board in an effort to determine the cause of the rapid increase. It is rumored that the officials of adjoining counties have not been as efficient as they might be in such cases and it is probable that I will ask the State board to investigate."

ARMY TEST FOR IMMIGRANTS

This Would Solve Big Problem, Think Secretary of Labor Wilson.

Washington.—After a conference with Commissioner General Caminetti, Secretary Wilson of the Department of Labor, advised Speaker Clark that the problem of Asiatic immigration could be solved by Congress raising the standard of admission so as to include in the list of excluded aliens those persons not able to pass the physical tests required of recruits for the United States army.

"Inasmuch as the vast majority of the present-day immigrants must earn a livelihood, if at all, by performing manual labor," wrote Secretary Wilson, "I see no reason why the standard should not be raised to this point."
The views of the Department of Labor, including those of the Immigration Bureau, were expressed in a letter to Speaker Clark in which Secretary Wilson says the method suggested would not only meet the Asiatic immigration issue, but also immigration generally.

ELECTRIC SIGNS!

The distinguishing air of quality which a first-class Electric Sign gives to a store is the element which gives a sign its greatest value as an advertising medium and investment. The impression it makes is good. It blazes forth to the public that there is business enterprise, merchandise and methods up-to-date. It affects the entire atmosphere of the business district. The stranger says, "It is a live town," and publishes it abroad.
It is the Sign of the Times.
